

Perivale Park Golf Club

Data Protection Policy

This policy statement sets out how we process and use your personal data as well as your rights in these terms. This information relates only to members of Perivale Park Golf Club.

All data will be processed in accordance with the Data Protection Act of 2018 which incorporates the European General Data Regulation (GDPR).

The Club Data Controller (the Membership Secretary) maintains members personal data and is the Club's contact point. The personal data collected from members when they join the club are full name, gender, phone/mobile contact numbers, postal address, email and date of birth and where applicable golf handicap

Club Members' personal data is used as follows:

- To inform members of club events, activities and competitions and to enable members to arrange matches with each other.
- For membership renewal
- For identification in the Central Database of Handicaps (CDH) by name, gender and date of birth.
- Shared with Club's insurance provider periodically (names only) for future claim requirements.
- Handicaps and names are sent to Middlesex Golf Club and the National Association of Public Golf Courses when members play in their competitions.
- Information on playing conditions and restrictions, course status and developments
- Notification of AGM and distribution of executive committee meeting minutes
- In a small number of cases, only when essential and freely volunteered by the member concerned, medical information (eg use of buggy required) and/or other personal information for DBS checks.

Personal details are kept for up to two years after membership has elapsed and then deleted. Personal details, other than a name, will not be displayed on the website. Personal data will not be used for third party marketing.

It will be considered that members will have automatically “opted in” to the system on submitting the Club’s new member registration form unless they request to “opt out.”

You are in control of how we communicate with you. Members may opt out from receiving such communications if they wish by emailing ppgolfclub1@gmail.com to update your preferences.
